LET US PRAY CONGREGATIONS AND CLERGY

Thou Hast Search Me and Known Me – By Rev. Howard Thurman

IN ALL PLACES –

*Where I have dallied in joyous abandon,
Where I have responded to ancient desires and yielded to impulses as old as life . . .
Where chores have remained chores, unfulfilled by laziness of spirit and sluggishness of mind;
Where work has been stripped of joy . . .
Where the responses to human need has been halfhearted and weak . . .
Thou has known me!*

*When I have lost my way . . .
When with deliberate intent I have turned my back on truth and peace . . .
When things to do have peopled my days with mounting anxiety and ever-deepening frustration;
When in loneliness I have sat in the thicket of despair too weak to move, to lift my head;
Thou has searched for and found me!*

I cannot escape Thy Scrutiny!
I would not escape They Love!

“Pray in the Spirit at all times in every prayer and supplication.” (Ephesians 6: 18 NRSV)

“When you call upon me and come and pray to me, I will hear you.” (Jeremiah 29: 12 NRSV)

We hope that you will not only include the name of the congregation in your Sunday bulletins, but also PRAY for these congregations in the PASTORAL PRAYER and during the week. Let us learn about and pray for and with our congregations in Nebraska and their pastors.
